

Mass Offerings

A. General Information

A Mass offering is a monetary gift given to a priest to celebrate Mass for the intention of the donor. When Mass is offered for more than one donor's intention, it is known as a collective intention. The current customary offering is $10.00.

As gifts, the offerings must not pass through the parish books but must be given directly to the priest who is offering the Mass.

B. Mass Offering Policy

All Mass offerings must be recorded in a special register dedicated for that purpose that includes space for the number of Masses requested, the intentions, and the offerings made, with space for the priest to sign once the Mass has been offered (cc. 955, §4; 958, §1).

A priest may not ask for an offering larger than the determined amount, but may accept a voluntary offering in any amount (c. 952, §1). The current suggested offering is $10.00.

Even if not offering is received, Mass should be celebrated for the intention of the donor, especially for those in need (c. 945 §2).

When a priest celebrates more than one Mass on the same day, he may apply an intention for each Mass celebrated, but he may retain only one offering for himself. The other Mass offerings are to be remitted to the Chancery Office where they will be credited to the Vocations Fund. On Christmas Day, a priest who celebrates more than one Mass (up to three Masses) may retain the offering for each Mass celebrated (c. 951, §1).

In the case of concelebration, a priest may accept an offering if the Mass is the only Mass offered by the priest or if it is his first Mass of the day. A priest who concelebrates a second Mass on the same day may not accept another Mass offering, even for the Vocations Fund (c. 951, §2).

A priest may only accept Mass offerings that can be satisfied within one year (c. 953). Surplus Mass offerings should be sent to the Chancery Office where they will be distributed to priests who are in need.

Separate Masses must be applied for the intentions of those for whom an individual offering, even if small, has been made and accepted (c. 948), except in the case of a collective intention as described below.

Donors must be clearly informed and freely consent before the priest can combine their offerings in a collective intention, which is not to occur more than twice a week. The celebrant may keep only the customary offering for one Mass (i.e. $10). The remainder of the Mass offerings are to be forwarded to the Chancery Office where they will be credited to the Vocations Fund (cf. Congregation for the Clergy, Decree Mos iugiter; c. 951, §1). On Christmas Day, a priest who celebrates more than one Mass (up to three Masses) may retain the offering for each Mass celebrated (c. 951, §1).

Mass offerings are to be made in cash or cheque. Cheques are to be payable to the priest, not the parish.

When it is inconvenient to ask a parishioner to replace a cheque for Mass offerings payable in error to the parish, it may be “cashed” out of the loose collection at the discretion of the pastor as long as it does not exceed $100. Donor information from cheques found in the loose collection are normally photocopied so that the donor may be credited with the donation for tax receipt purposes. Cheques that were made payable to the parish for Mass offerings are not donations, so these cheques should not be photocopied for tax receipt purposes.

Mass intentions may be published in the parish bulletin at the discretion of the pastor.
