STARTING A PARISH LITURGY COMMITTEE

PRESENTER: Leo Ilomin

COURSE NO: SP702

10AM - 12:30PM HALF-DAY

We are one Church, the Body of Christ. Planning, organizing, and acting are important in community worship. A liturgy committee supports the celebrant and helps to facilitate the celebration. Since all the senses are employed during the sacramental celebration, we need to ensure that God's presence is a reality in every step of the liturgy. Lent, Easter, Advent and Christmas are the times when a Parish Liturgy Committee is much needed. Sacramental celebrations and Parish Feast are celebrations that needs to be organized and the answer is a Parish Liturgy Committee.

Leo Ilomin, Member of the Archdiocesan Liturgy Commission, St. Ann's Abbotsford Parishioner.

RELATIONAL MINISTRY EARNING THE RIGHT TO BE HEARD

PRESENTER: Clayton Imoo

COURSE NO: SP706

10:00AM - 12:30PM HALF-DAY

When it comes to youth ministry, it's easy to get caught up in programming, planning skits and talks, and logistics. But it's more important to focus on people and less on programming; more on souls and less on attendance. Come to this workshop to learn practical skills to improve your relational ministry with teens. After all, young people won't care how much you know until they know how much you care. Recommended for all youth ministry coordinators, core team members, and volunteers.

MUSIC MINISTRY THE HEART OF WORSHIP

PRESENTER: Dylan Drego

COURSE NO: SP707

When you sing to the Lord you are in the company of angels; music is meant to lift our souls to the heights of worship and increase our devotion and strengthen our prayer. If this isn't how you feel after Mass, Adoration, or a retreat, then something is missing - but it doesn't have to be this way! Come to this workshop to discover simple ways to significantly increase your effectiveness as a Lead Worshipper, Choir member, Musician, or lay person using music in the company of angels

Dylan Drego is a parishioner of St. Pius X and has over 10 years of leading worship at Mass, Retreats, Conferences, and Adoration services. He has also been very active in youth ministry at both the parish and archdiocesan levels.
