40 BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE PRO-LIFE EFFORT POLLING & DATA ON ABORTION

- 1) According to the polls, "pro-life" has been the "new normal" for Americans since 2009. In 2012, 50% of Americans identified as pro-life, while those identifying as "pro-choice" hit a record low of 41%.<sup>[1]</sup>
- 2) Young people are increasingly pro-life, which is evident as thousands of youth travel to the March for Life each year.

Trends show that support of unlimited access to abortion by young people has dropped 12 percent points since 1990.

According to Gallup "support for making abortion broadly illegal [is] growing fastest among young adults."<sup>[2]</sup>
