

ST. MARK'S COLLEGE
CORPUS CHRISTI COLLEGE

Sessional Instructors
Corpus Christi College

The Community of St. Mark's at UBC is comprised of St. Mark's College, St. Mark's Parish and Corpus Christi College. Together we provide a centre of academic excellence for Catholic higher education in British Columbia. The Colleges are committed to promoting an authentic Christian humanism, animated by a joy of searching for, discovering, and communicating truth in every field of knowledge. Corpus Christi College offers the best start for undergraduate students embarking on their university experience, fortified by an education offering the richness of the Liberal Arts. We prepare graduates who are prepared to take on the intellectual, professional, and social challenges of our times.

Corpus Christi College invites applications for Sessional instructors to teach the following subject areas:

- English
- Psychology
- Languages (French, Spanish etc.)
- Business
- Economics
- Political Science
- Sociology
- Computer Science
- History

Candidates should possess a graduate degree or professional qualification as appropriate plus relevant work experience and demonstrate the capability for effective teaching in the subject area of interest.

Interested candidates should submit their curriculum vitae to hr@corpuschristi.ca clearly indicating their subject area of interest.

Applications received 2-3 months prior to the start of the semester will receive first consideration; however applications will be accepted until the courses have been assigned.

Corpus Christi College is committed to employment equity and values diversity; all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply.
